Steven Schnur's Summer: An Alphabet Acrostic is one of a series addressing the four seasons, with acrostic poems for each letter of the alphabet. Each letter has its own page, with a brief impressionistic poem addressing a subject that starts with that letter. So, "D" is about a daisy; "M" about mosquitoes; "V" about vegetables. However, the subject of the poem is never mentioned directly, instead the word spelled out in acrostic form by the first letters of the first lines of the poems: Green clusters, soon to be Red And Purple, Entwine the Stairs. Despite the rigid format, the poems never feel forced and are almost haiku-like in their simple rhythms and tones. Write an acrostic poem about summer. Begin each line with a word or sentence that starts with the letter on that line.Â Alphabet Letters Activity. 157,300. Find More Activities. Related Teaching Resources. Number Flash Cards. 154,970.
