ONLY KRISHNA IS ALL-KNOWLEDGING
A Lecture by
Srila Bhaktisiddhanta Saraswati Thakur Prabhupada

Political troubles are not bad in themselves. They are part and parcel of divine governance. We feel troubled only due to our ignorance of their real significance. But it is not for us or anyone to fully know the ways of God. We are only aware of that much of the divine activity as is helpful to us for His service. The least particle of such knowledge is more than sufficient for all the purposes of our pure souls. The person who knows God does not understand His ways in the sense in which Godhead understands them. He understands them in the measure that is necessary for having his conscious share in those activities as a subservient of His subservients. Admission to the plane of service is equivalent to the cessation of spiritual ignorance. Spiritual enlightenment does not mean that the person so enlightened understands all things as God Himself understands them, either of this or of any other world. What such a person actually understands is his own relationship to and location in the uncovered plane of the Absolute Reality. Instead of being an insignificant ignorant actor in this mundane cosmos, he finds himself to be the most insignificant conscious entity in the plane of the supermundane sphere of all-existence, all-knowledge and all-joy. He consciously shares in the life of that realm in the tiny measure of his eligibility for the service of God.

On this mundane plane in the conditioned state we are anxious to know all things in the fullest measure, even as God Himself knows them. This bad ambition, properly enough, is impossible of realization. If it were possible for us to know everything, the distinction between God and ourselves would cease. Such ambition is the outcome of our attitude of disloyalty towards God. It proves that we are not willing to tolerate the domination of God. We are anxious to become God. This unnatural delusion is kept up by our experiences of this world. We seem to be constantly progressing towards the knowledge that will give us final mastery over everything. But do we really possess mastery over anything? Or are we forced to serve the purpose of Godhead by the driving force of His irresistible deluding energy, even while we are dreaming of establishing our own impending supremacy? Why are we permitted to progress in the knowledge of how to apparently dominate the entities of this world? Why are we permitted to consolidate our seeming power over the things of this world? Is it intended by God that we should enjoy this world and other worlds as proprietors even as God Himself, or at least as His co-partners? Is such consummation compatible with the existence of Godship? And over whom are we to exercise our Godly rule? If everybody is God, then there would be no entity that it would be necessary to exercise any power over. The idea that it is possible for us to have any real power over any entity is philosophically ridiculous.

Have we any control over our own body and mind? Why do we die, if we are really masters of our own destiny? Why are we ignorant at all? If we can be made ignorant, can we not also be made enlightened by the same agency? But can such enlightenment really make us anything other than the subservients of the agent?

Knowledge gives us power only so long as it is not taken away. Such permitted knowledge is not at all like knowledge that is possessed by God, in His own right. Permitted power also does not belong to us as its real proprietors. But what is the current view regarding the nature and possession of political power? Every nation is anxious to acquire power for the purpose of doing what it likes, with the same freedom and in the same dominating spirit as God Himself. Which of the nations is seriously thinking about the purpose of God in permitting them to have power for the time being? Why does every nation want to have more power than the other nations? Is it for serving God? Can God be served by mundane political power? Can the dead serve the living? Does God require food and drink that are apparently created by the bodily power of mortals for the nourishment of the body of flesh? Does He require speculations about the earthly existence that are vainly spun by the mental activities of erring man? If He requires neither, what can any nation suppose that it is being permitted to serve God by the intensification of the present godless physical and mental activities? God is afflicting mortals by permitting them freedom to shape their course in their own way without seeking His conscious guidance. The present scientific age is so sure of its capacity to take care of itself without reference to God that it is almost hopeless to expect it to reconsider its position in the light of these old and familiar truths. No real good can come out of any mortal endeavor, political or otherwise, if it is not undertaken with the conscious purpose of serving the will of God. It is necessary to seek to know the purpose of God. It is never possible for any person to know the full purpose of God. Furthermore, it is never possible for any person to know even the nature of God’s purpose in regard to oneself, unless He is pleased to impart such knowledge out of His causeless mercy. God always keeps Himself aloof from the concerns of those who choose to keep their concerns to themselves. That is the plight of the nations of our day. That is the plight of the empiric scientists. They never ponder over the wise words of the Bible, ‘What will it avail if we gain the world but lose our souls?’

Nothing is lost and everything is truly gained if we can only find our souls, if we can only find the purpose of God in those activities in which we are permitted to be engaged by His will. But it will be demanded, “How can we know anything about God with our present resources?” The answer is that we shall be permitted to know by His causeless mercy if we are only sincerely willing to submit to His guidance, but not otherwise. But are we really willing to submit to God in the manner that is directed by Him?

GOLD FOR KRISHNA

His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada

You have asked, “Could we use alchemy to make gold for Krishna’s altar?” I cannot follow what you mean by using alchemy for Krishna’s altar, but if you can make Krishna’s sitting place made of gold, either by alchemy or by purchasing gold, it will be a grand success. But I do not advise you to take advantage of alchemy for making gold. It is not certain. We should not waste our time on that which is not very sure. If you can manufacture gold, then we can very soon spread our Krishna Consciousness. But I think that Krishna will not give us that opportunity because as soon as we get a large quantity of gold then we will forget Krishna. That nature is incumbent in our character.

DEAD BODIES STAY IN THEIR HOUSES

Padayatra Arrival Lecture

Sri Srimad Gour Govinda Swami Maharaja

How long will you sleep in the lap of the ugly witch Maya? How long? You have already slept for such a long time, lakhs and lakhs of lives. Do you want to sleep in the lap of the ugly witch Maya?
When this transcendental sound vibration touches the ears, can one stay inside of their house? [Maharaja begins loudly banging his fist on the podium.] If it enters into their ears, no one can stay inside. Only those who are like nirjāvas—dead matter or stones, can remain inside. Only stones stay inside the house when such kīrtana is going on. This gaura-kīrtana is the only inspiration, the only life-giving force to the jīvas in Kali-yuga.

Therefore we have this sanākīrtana-padyātāra to save those souls, those who are dying out of ignorance, who have no life—no Krishna means no life. Krishna is life. Krishna says, jīvanam sarva-bhūtānām—"I am the life in all living entities." If you are not carrying Krishna in you, have you life? You have no life. You are dying at every moment. You are a dead body. You are living but dead. You are breathing like the bellows of a blacksmith. If there is no Krishna in you, what is the value of that life? That man or woman, who has no Krishna in them, is dead. What is the value of decorating a dead woman? Why do Gauranga Mahaprabhu and the gaura-priya-janas, the dear devotees of Gauranga Mahaprabhu, do this padayātāra, walking and walking so far, barefoot? Why do they do it? They never become tired. Rather, they get so much life. So much ānanda, transcendental pleasure is there, pa-ibe paramānanda, ānanda apīr—unlimited ānanda, unlimited happiness. By performing this padayātāra you will get transcendental pleasure. If you chant Hare Krishna you will forget all of your bodily ills and ailments. You will get such transcendental pleasure, nectar, life! Therefore we do it.

Mahaprabhu’s priya-jana, His dear devotee, our revered spiritual master Srila Prabhupada, started this. Mahaprabhu has taught it and Srila Prabhupada started it. This padayātāra is Mahaprabhu’s lilā going on today. One who cannot accept it, will remain as a mleccha, yaśana. Finally at the end of Kali-yuga, Kalki will come and annihilate them. But the fortunate living entities who accept and take part in gaura-kīrtana, who go out and take part in chanting, [Maharaja loudly shouts:]

| hare kṛṣṇa hare kṛṣṇa kṛṣṇa kṛṣṇa hare hare |
| hare rāma hare rāma rāma rāma hare hare |
| gaura-kīrtana |

Such persons have life. They will not be annihilated.

We offer many thanks to the devotees who have taken part in this recent padayātāra in Western...
Upon hearing this divine narration from Murari Gupta, the brahmāṇya Damodar Pandit said, “Blessed sir, what is this tale you have narrated? Lord Sri Krishna, the spiritual master of this cosmic manifestation, has by His free will taken birth as Viswambhar. Why then did the brahmāṇya say to Sachi Ma, ‘I shall go now. So take care of your son, dear lady.’ For what reason did he speak thus? I am much confused at this. For how can the Lord’s illusory energy affect the Lord? Kindly speak of this, and may this history of Sri Hari bring benefit to all the people of the world!”

Murari considered Damodar’s words. Then, bowing to Sri Hari, he said, “Please hear me with rapt attention.

janasya bhagavad-dhyānāt kirtanāt śravaṇād api hareḥ praveśo hṛdaye jīyate samahātmānāh

When a very pure soul meditates on Sri Hari or speaks and hears about Him, the Lord thereby enters and arises within his heart.

tasyānukāra cakre sa tat-tejas tat-arākramam
dadhāti puruṣo nityam ātmā-dehādi-vismītaḥ

The Lord creates a semblance of Himself in the bhakta, endowing him with His own eternal potencies and prowess. Thus the bhakta forever forgets all identification with his material mind, body, and related attachments.

With the passage of time, as he becomes more and more aloof from externals, at last he performs his bodily functions spontaneously, as did the enduringly jubilant devotee Prahlad Mahraja in ancient times. One who bathes in the ocean feels a oneness with it. However, upon reaching the shore one remembers once more the separate state of his body. Similarly, the saintly wives of the cowherd men of Vraja would on occasion taste oneness with Lord Krishna [as in the rāsa dance, but when again they engaged in their household chores they felt duality]. The Lord performed this pastime to show the exalted stage attainable by the kṛṣṇabhakta who has awakened his svārūpa in relation to Sri Krishna. So that people are not confused regarding this point, Gaura Hari taught here that He lives and acts through the body of His devotee. Of this there is no doubt.

Only one child in all of history laughed at the time of his birth, and that was Zarathustra. And this is an index—an index of the fact that a happy and laughing humanity is yet to be born. And only a joyful and laughing humanity can accept Krishna. So long as you think that one dies, you donâ€™t know that which is within us, that which has never died and will never die. If you think you can kill someone you are under a great illusion, you are betraying your ignorance. The concept of killing and dying is materialistic; only a materialist can believe so. So Krishna exhorts Arjuna over and over again in the GEETA: â€œThis is all play-acting; killing or dying is only a drama.â€

In this context it is necessary to understand why we call the life of Rama a characterization, a story, a biography, and not a play, a leela. Background 1 Out of all the gopis that loved Krishna some were married and some were unmarried. It is the unmarried girls who performed the Katayani vrat because gods and goddesses when pleased grant boons. So because all the gopis in their heart loved Krishna they performed that vrat as it was customary and usual in those days for unmarried girls to perform vrat to get good husbands. This type of vrat is still present today in some form where girls perform kumara purnima puja to get good grooms. Background 2 Draupadi knew the divinity of Krishna and hence called Him for help. Because it is only God who delivers the devotee from immediate danger. Gods and goddesses generally has to be pleased and many puja and rituals may be required for them. 3. Krishna is the eternal, all-knowing, omnipresent, all-powerful, and all-attractive Personality of Godhead. He is the seed-giving father of all living beings, and He is the sustaining energy of the entire cosmic creation. 4. The Absolute Truth is contained in all the great scriptures of the world. However, the oldest know revealed scriptures in existence are the Vedic literatures, most notably the Bhagavad-gita, which is the literal record of Godâ€™s actual words. 5. We should learn the Vedic knowledge from a genuine spiritual master—one who has no selfish motives and whose mind is firmly fixed on Krishna. 6. Before we eat, we should offer to the Lord the food that sustains us. Then Krishna becomes the offering and purifies us. Lord Krishna is worshiped as the eighth avatar of the lord Vishnu and is considered to be direct descent of God. He the central figure of the Bhagavad Gita. Â The eighth avatar of god Vishnu, Lord Krishna, is one of the most popular gods worshipped in Hinduism. With a flute in his hand and a peacock feather crown on his head, he is considered the god of compassion, tenderness and love. Not just in this country, since the 1960s, the worship of Lord Krishna has also spread to the Western world, especially after being promoted through the International Society for Krishna Consciousness—ISKON. His life, as described by the ancient manuscripts, has been a journey comprising of power, miracles, humility, love and loyalty. Â And we are preaching this movement all over the world. Our only ambition is to place Krishna as the Supreme Personality of Godhead. We donâ€™t want to become Krishna; we want to become the most obedient servant of Krishna. That is our proposition.
