SYNOPSIS

Spring, Summer, Autumn, Winter. Family and friendship.
 Love and warmth. Joy and sadness. Hope and despair.
 Companionship. Loneliness. A birth. A death. Time passes...

In the Spring, happily married Gerri, a medical counselor, and Tom, a geologist, tend their allotment. They entertain Gerri's lonely work colleague Mary, who gets very drunk, and bemoans her disastrous love life. Gerri and Tom enjoy a warm relationship with their community lawyer son Joe, aged 30, who reports that although his friends are getting married, he is still without a partner.

In the Summer, Ken comes down to London to spend a weekend with Gerri and Tom. Ken works in a government employment office in Hull, and is Tom's boyhood friend from their native Derby. He gets very drunk, and bemoans his tragic, lonely life. The next day, while Gerri celebrates the sunshine at the allotment, Tom, Ken, Joe and a neighbor enjoy a game of golf. A barbeque party follows. Mary arrives late and flustered in her newly-acquired secondhand car. She is frosty towards an innocently amorous Ken, and flirtatious in an urgent and serious way towards Joe, her junior by a generation.

In the Autumn, Gerri and Tom return home from the allotment to enjoy a pleasant surprise from Joe. He has hidden his new partner Katie behind a door. Katie is an occupational therapist, and Gerri and Tom like her immediately. But Mary, who has already been invited to tea, is instantly jealous and hostile towards Katie, and behaves very rudely. Although they all sympathize with her car troubles, Mary's behavior towards Katie leaves a bad odor with the good-natured Gerri and Tom.

In the Winter, Gerri, Tom and Joe drive up to Derby for the funeral of the wife of Tom's elder brother, Ronnie. Ronnie's aggressive, estranged son Carl arrives late at the crematorium. Back at Ronnie's house, Carl is confrontational with his father, and with Tom and Joe; he causes other mourners to leave suddenly, and then stomps off in a rage. Gerri and Tom bring Ronnie back to London. Whilst they are at the allotment, Mary shows up at the house unannounced, and in a fraught state. She drinks tea and smokes cigarettes with a bemused Ronnie. On their return, Gerri and Tom are far from pleased to see Mary, especially as Joe is due to arrive with Katie for a family dinner. But after Mary has broken down apologetically, Gerri invites her to stay, albeit reluctantly. At the dinner table, while Gerri and Tom reminisce about the round-the-world backpacking days of their youth, and Katie and Joe look forward to their impending trip to Paris, Ronnie quietly enjoys his beer and his dinner and Mary faces the sad emptiness of her passing life.

ABOUT THE CAST

JIM BROADBENT (Tom)

A regular collaborator with Mike Leigh, and one of the best-known faces in British acting, Jim Broadbent works with Leigh for the seventh time on ANOTHER YEAR following the stage plays “Goose-pimples” and “Ecstasy”, the films Life Is Sweet, Topsy-Turvy and Vera Drake and the television short A Sense of History, which Jim wrote. Winner of the Oscar for Best Supporting Actor for Iris, Jim Broadbent has appeared in numerous films including Perrier’s Bounty, The Damned United, Harry Potter and the Half Blood Prince, The Young Victoria, Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of the Crystal Skull, Moulin Rouge, Richard III and Bullets Over Broadway. His stage work includes the National Theatre’s “The Pillowman” and Sam Mendes’ acclaimed production of Alan Bennett’s “Habeas Corpus”. His performance in the title role of the television production “Longford” won him a BAFTA.

LESLEY MANVILLE (Mary)

Mike Leigh’s most frequent actor collaborator, Lesley Manville has worked with the director on Secrets and Lies, High Hopes, Topsy-Turvy, All or Nothing, Vera Drake, the BBC film Grown-Ups, a radio play and in the theatre. Her other screen credits include Robert Zemeckis’s A Christmas Carol and the yet to be released Womb. On stage she appeared in the original productions of the modern classics “Top Girls”, “Serious Money” and “Les Liaisons Dangereuses”, as well as the highly acclaimed revivals of Edward Bond’s “Saved” and “The Pope’s Wedding”. In the last few years, Lesley has worked extensively at the National Theatre appearing in “His Dark Materials”, “Pillars Of The Community”, “The Alchemist” and “Her Naked Skin” and recently at the Old Vic Theatre in “All About My Mother” and “Six Degrees of Separation”. Her frequent television work includes Alan Clarke’s much acclaimed “The Firm”, and the highly successful series “Holding On”, “Other Peoples Children”, “Bodily Harm”, “Real Women”, “The Cazalets”, “North And South” and “Cranford”.

RUTH SHEEN (Gerri)

ANOTHER YEAR marks Ruth Sheen's fifth collaboration with Mike Leigh. In 1989, she was named European Actress of the Year as Shirley in High Hopes (opposite Vera Drake co-star Phil Davis), and in 1993 she appeared at the Theatre Royal Stratford East in his play, "It's A Great Big Shame!". Most recently, she played Maureen in All or Nothing, and Lily, the black marketer, in Vera Drake. Other film work includes Virtual Sexuality, The Young Poisoner's Handbook, Little Dorrit, Vanity Fair, Run Fat Boy Run and Heartless. On television she has been seen in numerous plays and series including "Holding On" and "Never Never", both written by Tony Marchant, "Bramwell", "Cracker", "Tom Jones" and "Fanny Hill". On stage, she has recently worked at the Royal Court in "Stoning Mary", at the National Theatre in "Market Boy" and at the Soho Theatre in "An Oak Tree" and "Leaves of Glass".

PETER WRIGHT (Ken)

ANOTHER YEAR marks Peter Wight's fifth collaboration with Mike Leigh following Meantime, Secrets and Lies, Naked and Vera Drake, in which he plays the Detective Inspector whose knock at the door of the Drake family home brings their world crashing down. A recognizable face from numerous British television series, including the acclaimed "Out of the Blue", and "Early Doors", Peter Wight has also been seen in many films. He has extensive stage credits throughout the UK, including work with the National Theatre, Shared Experience, the Royal Shakespeare Company, and most recently, in Ian Rickson's acclaimed Royal Court production of "The Seagull" starring Kristin Scott Thomas.

OLIVER MALTMAN (Joe)

ANOTHER YEAR is Oliver Maltman's second collaboration with Mike Leigh, following his appearance as Poppy's brother-in-law in Happy-Go-Lucky. An experienced comic character actor, his past shows include: "Oliver Maltman's Little Black Book" (The Pleasance Edinburgh 2006) and character stand-up at the Comedy Reserve (The Pleasance 2005). On stage he has appeared with the RSC, and on television he was seen in the highly-acclaimed comedy series "Star Stories", as well as "The Kevin Bishop Show" and "No Heroics".

DAVID BRADLEY (Ronnie)

ANOTHER YEAR marks the first time that David Bradley has worked with Mike Leigh. Best known to international audiences as Argus Filch in the Harry Potter films, David is a highly acclaimed stage actor who won the 1990 Olivier Award for Best Actor in a Supporting Role for "King Lear" at the National Theatre, and has subsequently been nominated for Olivier awards as Best Actor for the recent West End production of Pinter's "No Man's Land" and Best Actor in a Supporting Role for the National Theatre's 2006 productions of "Henry IV I & II" at the National Theatre. He has worked extensively with the National Theatre and The Royal Shakespeare Company, and appeared in Sam Mendes' simultaneous productions of "Uncle Vanya" and "Twelfth Night" at the Donmar in London and BAM in New York. He has also appeared in numerous television productions, the most recent of which include "Ashes to Ashes" and "The Street".

KARINA FERNANDEZ (Katie)

ANOTHER YEAR is Karina Fernandez's second collaboration with Mike Leigh, following her scene-stealing film debut as the Flamenco teacher in Happy-Go-Lucky. On television she has been seen in such programs as "Married. Single. Other", "My Family" and "Happy Birthday Shakespeare", and her stage appearances include Lulu in Max Stafford-Clark's production of "Shopping and Fking" at the Royal Court, Lady Macduff in "Macbeth" at Bristol Old Vic Studio, and "The Convict's Opera" for Max Stafford-Clark's Out of Joint.

MARTIN SAVAGE (Carl)

Martin Savage made his film debut as the drug-addicted actor George Grossmith in Mike Leigh's Topsy-Turvy. He was also seen as a taxi-passenger in All or Nothing and as one of the arresting police officers, DS Vickers, in Vera Drake. His other film credits include The Tailor of Panama, and V for Vendetta. He has appeared in numerous television series, with a regular role in both series of Ricky Gervais's "Extras" and a guest lead role in "The Thick of It Special" for Armando Iannucci. His stage appearances include "A Midsummer Night's Dream" for the Royal Shakespeare Company, in which he played Peter Quince and "Faustus for director Rupert Goold.

MICHELE AUSTIN (Tanya)

ANOTHER YEAR marks the fourth occasion Michele Austin has worked with Mike Leigh. She appeared in his play It's a Great Big Shame!, and subsequently in Secrets and Lies and All or Nothing. Other film appearances include the recently released The Infidel and I'll Sleep When I'm Dead. She has appeared in numerous television programs, including "Outnumbered", "Never Better", "Secret Life", "The Canterbury Tales: The Wife of Bath" and "The Last Detective", and was a regular in "The Bill", playing WPC Yvonne Fletcher. In the theatre she has worked with Out of Joint, the Oxford Stage Company, and at the Royal Court, Hampstead Theatre and the Young Vic.

PHIL DAVIS (Jack)

Phil Davis is probably best-known to film-goers for his role as Cyril, the motor-cycle courier, in Mike Leigh's 1989 High Hopes, and more recently as Stan, husband of the title character, in Vera Drake. For this performance he was named Best Actor at the British Independent Film Awards and by the San Diego Film Critics, and nominated as Best Supporting Actor at the 2005 BAFTA Awards. He also worked with Mike Leigh on the television films Who's Who and Grown-Ups and made a brief appearance in Secrets and Lies. Davis is a well-known face on British television, with recent appearances including "The Curse of Steptoe" and "Bleak House". His early work includes Alan Clark's legendary, "The Firm". On stage he was last seen in "Philistines" at the National Theatre and in Christopher Hampton's "Tales from Hollywood" at the Donmar Warehouse. Other film appearances include Notes on a Scandal, Nicholas Nickleby, Face, Alien III, The Bounty and Quadrophenia.

STUART MCQUARRIE (Tom's colleague)

Stuart McQuarrie is one of the only members of the cast of ANOTHER YEAR to be working with Mike Leigh for the first time. His other film credits include Young Adam, 28 Days Later and Trainspotting, and he has extensive television credits. On stage, he appeared in several productions at the Traverse and Royal Lyceum theatres in Edinburgh, and more recently in London at the Almeida, Old Vic, Donmar and National Theatre. For the Royal Shakespeare Company he played Petruchio in "The Taming of the Shrew".

IMELDA STAUNTON (Janet)

ANOTHER YEAR is Imelda Staunton's second film with Mike Leigh, following the award-winning Vera Drake, for which she won a BAFTA and was nominated for an Oscar. Her feature film credits include Shakespeare in Love, Sense and Sensibility, Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix and Taking Woodstock. Television roles include "Cambridge Spies", "David Copperfield" and the hugely successful "Cranford". For her stage work, Imelda Staunton has won three Olivier awards: as Best Supporting Actress for "The Corn is Green" and "A Chorus of Disapproval" at the National Theatre, and Best Actress in a Musical for "Into the Woods". She has appeared regularly at the National Theatre, most notably in Richard Eyre's production of "Guys and Dolls". Other London stage appearances include three productions with the Royal Shakespeare Company; as Sonya in Michael Blakemore's production of "Uncle Vanya" at the Vaudeville Theatre and with Jim Broadbent and Brenda Blethyn in Sam Mendes' production of "Habeas Corpus" at the Donmar Warehouse. She was most recently seen in a revival of "Entertaining Mr. Sloane".

GEORGINA LOWE (Producer)

Georgina Lowe began working with Mike Leigh as production supervisor on Naked, Secrets and Lies and Career Girls. She was co-producer/line-producer on Topsy-Turvy, All or Nothing, Vera Drake and Happy-Go-Lucky, and serves as Producer for the first time on ANOTHER YEAR. Her credits as a television producer include “The Mayor of Casterbridge”, the Sarah Waters’ adaptations “Tipping the Velvet” and “Fingersmith”, for which she was BAFTA-nominated, and, most recently, three series of the popular ITV drama ‘Kingdom’ starring Stephen Fry.

DICK POPE, BSC (Cinematographer)

Dick Pope has worked with Mike Leigh on Life is Sweet, Naked, Secrets and Lies, Career Girls, Topsy-Turvy, All or Nothing, Vera Drake, Happy-Go-Lucky and his television short, A Sense of History. At Camerimage (the International Festival of the Art of Cinematography) Pope has twice won the main prize, once in 1996 for his work on Secrets and Lies, and again in 2004 for Vera Drake. In 2000 at the same festival, he and Mike Leigh won for best director/cinematographer collaboration. His other feature film credits include The Illusionist, for which he received an Oscar nomination amongst other citations; Barry Levinson's Man of the Year and John Sayles' Honeydripper. His most recent films are Gurinder Chadha's Angus Thongs and Full Frontal Snogging and It's A Wonderful Afterlife, Richard Linklater's Me and Orson Welles and Jill Sprecher's The Convincer.

JON GREGORY, ACE (Editor)

ANOTHER YEAR marks Jon Gregory's first collaboration with Mike Leigh since Secrets and Lies. Prior to that the two worked together on Naked, Life is Sweet, High Hopes, The Short and Curlies, and A Sense of History. For director John Hillcoat, he most recently cut The Road and also the critically acclaimed The Proposition in 2005. For Mike Newell, Gregory served as editor on Four Weddings and a Funeral, Donnie Brasco, Pushing Tin and An Awfully Big Adventure. Gregory received BAFTA nominations for Four Weddings and a Funeral, the television series "Traffik", and most recently, In Bruges.

SIMON BERESFORD (Production Designer)

ANOTHER YEAR is Simon Beresford's first collaboration with Mike Leigh. His other credits include the feature film Out of Season starring Dennis Hopper and Gina Gershon, and the television dramas "Thatcher: The Long Walk to Finchley" and "Bradford Riots". His extensive stage credits as designer include "Antony and Cleopatra" with Vanessa Redgrave, and "Les Liaisons Dangereuses" in Zürich. He has worked for De Nederlandse Opera, Bregenzer Festspiele, Scottish Opera, Houston Grand Opera and The Royal Ballet, amongst others.

GARY YERSHON (Music)

ANOTHER YEAR is Gary Yershon's fourth collaboration with Mike Leigh. He was musical director for Topsy-Turvy and composed the music for "Two Thousand Years" at the National Theatre, and Happy-Go-Lucky. He has composed for numerous stage productions, with scores for the Royal Shakespeare Company, the National Theatre, Royal Court, Almeida, Donmar Warehouse, Old Vic, Young Vic, the UK's major regional theatres, and many West End shows (notably Yasmina Reza's plays "Art", "The Unexpected Man", "Life x 3" and "The God of Carnage"). His contribution to Matthew Warchus's revival of "The Norman Conquests" earned him a 2009 Drama Desk nomination. His many scores for BBC radio include, most recently, "Gawain and the Green Knight” for Radio 4, “The Theban Plays” for Radio 3, and the Sony Award-winning productions “Lorilei” and “Autumn Journal”.

His television work includes three cartoon series, “The Heritage Game”, and, most recently, Lynda La Plante’s “Trial and Retribution IX and X”.

JACQUELINE DURRAN (Costume Designer)

ANOTHER YEAR is Jacqueline Durran’s fourth film with Mike Leigh, following All or Nothing, which marked her first solo venture as a costume designer, her BAFTA-award-winning work on Vera Drake and Happy-Go-Lucky. She received BAFTA and Oscar nominations for Pride and Prejudice and Atonement both with director Joe Wright, with whom she worked most recently on The Soloist. Previously she had collaborated for several years with designer Lindy Hemming on numerous projects including Topsy-Turvy for which Hemming won the Oscar. Other film projects include David Mackenzie’s Young Adam, Sally Potter’s Yes, and most recently, Nanny McPhee and the Big Bang.

CHRISTINE BLUNDELL (Make-up & Hair Design)

ANOTHER YEAR marks Christine Blundell's ninth collaboration with Mike Leigh following Life is Sweet, Naked, Secrets and Lies, Career Girls, Topsy-Turvy, for which she won an Oscar and a BAFTA for Best Make-up, All or Nothing, Vera Drake, for which she received a BAFTA nomination, and Happy-Go-Lucky. Her other recent credits include Sherlock Holmes, The Boat That Rocked (aka Pirate Radio), Eastern Promises on which she was Personal Make-up Artists to Naomi Watts, And When Did You Last See Your Father, Sunshine, Casino Royale (hairdressing supervisor), Closer, on which she was Personal Make-up Artist to Natalie Portman, Finding Neverland, for which she was BAFTA-nominated, and The Constant Gardener. She most recently worked on William Monahan’s London Boulevard with Keira Knightley and Colin Farrell, and John Landis’s Burke and Hare.

Another year, another 100 things to celebrate and mourn-and another film that makes me appreciate how good cinema can make me feel. March 7, 2019 | Full Review | Amie Simon. Three Imaginary Girls. Another Year, though not an important piece of Leigh's oeuvre, is still a highly enjoyable one. November 6, 2019 | Rating: 3.7/5 | Full Review | David Harris. Spectrum Culture. Another year, another 100 things to celebrate and mourn-and another film that makes me appreciate how good cinema can make me feel. My Christmas song "Another Year" is out now, artwork by the incredibly Talented @lukefenstemaker. I wrote this song this time last year but if I had known what would happen in the following 12 months, I wouldn't have changed a line. Hope it gives you a little comfort. In an additional statement, Finneas said: I wrote this song last Christmas, with a year of uncertainty ahead of us. Had I known anything I know now about how 2020 would go, I don't think I would have changed a word. Another Year is a 2010 British comedy-drama film written and directed by Mike Leigh and starring Lesley Manville, Jim Broadbent, and Ruth Sheen. It premiered at the 2010 Cannes Film Festival in competition for the Palme d'Or. The film was shown at the 54th London Film Festival before its general British release date on 5 November 2010. At the 83rd Academy Awards, Mike Leigh was nominated for an Oscar for Best Original Screenplay. Vuosi elämästä. Original title: Another Year. 2010. K-3K-3. This film tells a story (by the 4 seasons) of a year in the lives of a UK couple and their friends. Mary is a secretarial co-worker and friend of Gerri, a professional counselor and the sweet wife of her well-rumpled and very likable engineer/geologist husband, Tom (yes, Tom and Gerri).
