

What is the Bible?

By Samuel Green

What is the Bible?

The Bible is the holy book of Christians. The word "Bible" comes from the Greek word "biblia" which means "books".

The Bible is not one book but a collection of many books from many prophets. It contains the Law of Moses (Torah), the Psalms of David, the books of Solomon, the books of the prophets Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Daniel, Hosea, Joel, Amos, Obadiah, Jonah, Micah, Nahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah, Haggai, Zechariah, Malachi and others. It has the Gospel of Jesus recorded by Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, and the writings of the apostles of Jesus.

The Qur'an refers by name to some of these books. It speaks of the Torah & Gospel (Qur'an 3:3), the books of the prophets (Qur'an 3:84), and the Psalms (Qur'an 4:163); and it calls Christians "the people of the book" (Qur'an 5:68).

Why do Christians have all these books in the Bible?

Christians accept all the prophets and make no distinction between them, therefore, they have all these books in the Bible so they can read them.

Secondly, God has spoken to us through many prophets. Their books build on each other and they are meant to be read together, and together they give us God's complete message. What Christians believe about God comes from reading all of the books of the prophets.

When the disciples of Jesus believed the Gospel they continued to read and teach from the Law of Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalms.

When the first people from many nations became Christians they too started to read the Law of Moses, the Prophets and the Psalms as well as the Gospel. Even today, when someone becomes a Christian they not only read the Gospel but they are taught to read all of the prophets. In Christian churches all of the prophets are publicly read and taught.

Wherever Christianity has gone it has taken the Law of Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalms, and encouraged people to read all of them along with the Gospel. Christians have translated all these books into most languages so that the message of the prophets can be known in all the world.

You and the Prophets

Do you want to honour the prophets? The most important way to honour a prophet is to listen to them and read their books.

Do you want to know all of God's message? If so then you need to read all of the books of the prophets and not just one.

These prophets are available for you to read today in your language. Ask a Christian for a copy of the Bible or search for it online.

Do not let anyone mislead you and turn you away from reading the books of the prophets of God.

Would you like to say this prayer to God?

Almighty God, thank you for speaking to us through your prophets. Please help me to listen to all of them.
